

Job Description: Transportation Program Manager

About the Organization

The Monterey Bay Economic Partnership (MBEP) is seeking an experienced senior level program manager with a proven track record of accomplishments in dealing with policy and government process. Do you have a proven track record of success in sales? Are you excited to work with local policy makers to enhance our region's transportation options? To be successful, you will develop strategies and implement plans in our transportation initiative.

MBEP is a regional nonprofit, membership organization consisting of over 80 public, private and civic entities located throughout the counties of Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz. Our vision is a thriving region for all residents, and our mission is to improve the economic health and quality of life in the region. Our board is an engaged group of regional leaders.

Are you focused on results? Do you crave putting strategic plans in motion with dynamic, innovative and impactful tactics? MBEP is doing great things that are making our communities stronger. Come use your powers for good by applying your talents to make a difference right here in the Monterey Bay region.

Every day will be different, with unique strategies and approaches to implementation. You will be expected to bring fresh ideas, passion and energy to your role, helping to make a positive impact on our region through your work. You will also be expected to multi-task, be organized, and get a lot of stuff done in a professional manner, working collaboratively with other members of the MBEP team and our partners. We have a lean organization and value smart "doers."
